RECOVERY UPDATE

December 14, 2021

2021 Wildfire and Drought AgriRecovery Initiative

Way' Members,

If you or a family member's agricultural operations (bees, feed, fencing, livestock, etc.) were affected by the 2021 drought and wildfire, the Okanagan Indian Band Recovery team will be helping affected community members fill out applications to help offset a portion of their costs to get back to production.

There is a full list of supported agricultural assistance and the forms to apply if members choose to complete them on their own using the link below. You can also contact Lane Brewer at recoverywellness2@okanagan.org to book an appointment to complete your application or if you have any questions concerning this program please call 250-306-7860.

Application deadline is January 31, 2022. Please reach out as soon as possible to ensure your application is submitted before the deadline. Please follow the link for more information:
