

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Forestry Superintendent

JOB SUMMARY

The OKIB Group of Companies is looking to fill this important role. The Forestry Superintendent is required to assist in the management of a replaceable forest license with an approximate annual allowable cut of 116,000m³ and a non-replaceable license with an approximate annual allowable cut of 25,000m³. The successful applicant will also be required to bid on and manage fuel management projects including prescriptions and implementation projects.

The OKIB Group of Companies offers a welcoming team environment and a rewarding job experience. You can expect a supportive work environment, a total compensation package which includes a competitive wage, extended health and dental benefits, pension and vacation plan.

JOB DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manage all aspects of pre-harvest timber development and other forestry work on behalf OKIB Forestry LP including: Contract administration, operational planning, field work, associated permit preparation and submissions, and the preparation of other professional documents such as site plans and Forest Stewardship Plans;
- Manage all aspects of tenure administration including Cut Control, stumpage, and Silviculture liability;
- Supervise the quality and delivery of third-party timber development contracts;
- Prepare and administer sales agreements;
- Prepare annual budgets and forecasts for forestry operations;
- Prepare and deliver invoices;
- Assist with projects, business development and management needs as required;
- Represent the OKIB Forestry LP with respect to all forestry related matters;

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Forestry Superintendent

- Work with the OKIB to implement Stewardship principles, ensuring OKIB Values and community input is respected and protected in all operations;
- Sit on government advisory, forest industry, and First Nations committees where appropriate as determined by the CEO;
- Develop, plan and implement programs, policies and procedures on behalf of the OKIB as directed;
- Provide project management, human resource management, contract administration and performance management consistent with organizational goals, targets and the annual plan;
- Liaise with external customers and stakeholders with respect to forestry operations;
- Build extensive and meaningful relationships with the community, family members, and other stakeholders within the traditional territory;
- Abide by specific internally established control systems and authorities, to lead by personal example and encourage all employees to conduct their activities in accordance with all applicable laws and the Company's standards and policies, including its environmental, safety and health policies; and
- All other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education

- Preference will be given to candidates who have a RFT or RPF designation through the BC Association of Forest Professionals.
- Business management education or experience would be beneficial.

Experience

- Min 5-years related experience in forest license management, planning and development.
- Min 2-years related experience in fuel management prescriptions and implementation projects.

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Forestry Superintendent

- Experience working with First Nations communities and understanding policies.
- Experience with the Interior forest industry would be an asset.

Competencies (KSAs & Desired Attributes)

- Analytical, problem solving and decision making skills
- Competent with basic computer systems
- Familiar with Provincial Forestry Legislative and Regulatory framework
- A self-starter and ability to work with minimum supervision.
- Effective verbal, and written communication and great listening skills

WORKING CONDITIONS

Key aspects of work in this occupation:

- Work is typically performed either in a strict environment, such as an office, or in an outdoor work environment where the worker is exposed to many different weather conditions.
- Examples of work done outdoors may include operating power saws to thin and space trees, conducting site inspections of forestry operations and repairing roads.

REPORTING STRUCTURE

Reports to the Chief Executive Officer

DIRECT REPORTS

All Forestry LP staff

HOW TO APPLY

Send your resume and cover letter to communications@okibgc.ca